NBC10 Tim Furlong's report

Friday, May 20 5:30pm

LIVE

Anchor Down Timmeney: "If you haven't made any plans for the weekend, there's a whole host of things going on in WILMINGTON, Delaware. It's WILMINGTON's big weekend starting with a major sporting event and NBC10's Tim Furlong's live in WILMINGTON with just a sneak peak at just a few of the activities awaiting visitors. I know it doesn't look very welcoming in that weather but a whole lot of great things are happening Tim."

Reporter Tim Furlong, live: "Who would want to come to WILMINGTON with this beautiful weather Dawn? It's raining about as hard as it rained all week here and it just started before we went on the air which is absolutely just my luck."

There is always great stuff happening here in WILMINGTON. To my right you're looking at a very rainy Monkey Hill here in WILMINGTON where the WILMINGTON Grand Prix Time Trials are underway. Its just one of many many great things, hopefully many dry things that are happening here in WILMINGTON. Check it out."

ON TAPE

Tim Furlong: "It is a big weekend for WILMINGTON. Some of the world's best cyclists are here grinding up the slippery cobblestones of Monkey Hill."

Jerry DuPhily: "We're got hot air balloons. We're got moon bounces. We've got 600 racers from all over the world so it's a big Spring celebration for the city."

Woman on the street: "WILMINGTON is thee in place to be."

Tim Furlong: "Yes, WILMINGTON is thee place to be. Aside from the cycling events and this block party near Market Street's Kuumba School there's also a super cool event this weekend at the new World Café Live at the just restored Queen Theater."

"Ben Harper is just one of the many big name musicians playing in WILMINGTON at the non-comm conference through Sunday. WXPB Radio usually holds this big non-comm music conference in Philly but this year they brought their hundreds of attendees about 35 miles south to Delaware."

Roger LeMay: "I have to tell you the conference attendees came up to me and said 'Why are we going to Delaware?' and now every single one of them is saying 'whoa this is great, its so fabulous that you're involved with this project.'"

Tim Furlong: "So if you want to rock or if you just want to do something different with the family maybe you should make it a WILMINGTON weekend but just don't get run over by all the people out cruisin' on their ten-speeds, there will be lots of them."

LIVE

And back live; you know Lance Armstrong used to race here back in the 90s when it was the Tour DuPont. This race is a big deal in the cycling world and its great for WILMINGTON as it tries to further become Philly's hip little cousin down the highway.
